

COMPETITION 7 BRIDES FOR 7 BROTHERS

We bet you all have seen this extraordinary movie of 1954 at least once. The story of Adam Pontipee and his 6 lumberjack brothers (and the girls who will become their brides) as well as the unforgettable soundtrack gave us the idea for this game-competition. So, come on guys and gals, have fun with us and take the chance to win tickets for Billy Dean's concert at the Independence Day Fest 2009.

Prizes also for couples ranking 2nd and 3rd place.

RULES

The game is for couples: fiances, husbands and wives, bros and sisters or simple friends.

The first round is recalling what the Pontipee Bros did when they kidnapped the girls: every guy will have to wheelbarrow the girl and push her along a passage - simulating the kidnapping - in the least possible time.

The second round is the cutting of the trunk. To demonstrate they're in sync, the couple will have to cut a small trunk in the least possible time.

The third round is something guys don't like for sure: hang the laundry! And the girls help them.

The fourth and final round: guys alone will set up the table, seat the girl and join her. The competition will then be over.

Our judges will follow carefully each round and the best three times will get the first three places.

Have fun with us!!!
